

Dress Code for the third annual Virginia Youth Policy Forum

As you know, the Virginia Youth Policy Forum is an event that will be conducted in the House of Delegates Chamber and other parts of the State Capitol. You will be interacting with state legislators and members of the Governor's Cabinet. Therefore, appropriate attire is necessary.

Gentlemen: Button-down, long-sleeved, collared shirts and ties are required. Dress pants and dress shoes are also crucial. A sports jacket is recommended, but not required. No tennis shoes please.

Ladies: A skirt and blouse, dress slacks, or a dress are required. No tennis shoes please.
